

Let's Crash the Wedding!

Before Paul Martin says
"I accept your Missile Defense"

Paul Martin Jr. won't say NO to George Bush Jr. - a bad start to a relationship that affects us all!

Paul Martin's priorities are wrong:

He can't say yes to same-sex marriage, but is ready to say yes to George Bush's star wars madness.

So, a week before Valentine's Day, NOWAR-PAIX invites you to crash the "civil union" of Jr. & Jr.!

As Paul Martin promises to love, honour and help pay for a new arms race, we all need to stand up for world peace.

The happy couple will arrive on Parliament Hill at noon to exchange vows of political subservience to military-corporate interests.

The couple has asked for missiles as wedding gifts. So please bring missiles, but made of cardboard! Let Paul and Dubya know cardboard missiles are safer than nuclear weapons, work just as well, and cost nothing. Write your own message to the explosive couple on your missiles.

When Jr. met Jr. their love was explosive!

Saturday, February 7, 2004
11:30 am - Parliament Hill
